

Sleeping Alone

Jake Banfield

You don't know the pain you put me through
All those things you said you wouldn't do
Got me laying here like a fool mh
We can't work it out this time
I got no more tears to cry
And I guess that's the reason why

I've been sleeping alone
This house ain't no home
I'm laying in this bed
All up in my head
And I'm rolling off slope
Girl I've been up all night
Turning side to side
I don't know where to go
Don't know how to cope
'Cause you're sleeping with him
And I'm sleeping alone

'Cause all my friends tell me I should move on
Remember when you could do no wrong?
Now baby girl it's been so long
Since you said "so long"

'Cause I've been sleeping alone
This house ain't no home
I'm laying in this bed
All up in my head
And I'm rolling off slope
Girl I've been up all night
Turning side to side
I don't know where to go
Don't know how to cope
'Cause you're sleeping with him
And I'm sleeping alone
(And I'm sleeping alone)

'Cause I've been sleeping alone
This house ain't no home
I'm laying in this bed
All up in my head
And I'm rolling off slope
Girl I've been up all night
Turning side to side
I don't know where to go
Don't know how to cope
'Cause you're sleeping with him
And I'm sleeping alone
