

Sunburn

Jake Banfield

(Oh)
Yeah

I'm trading dirt for the sand and this shirt for a tan
I'm talking sunrise to sunset, just you with no plans
Don't need no service unless it's poolside with you and I
Then that's worth it, oh yeah, that's perfect

Oh, we're living wild and young
Oh, no cover up

I wanna feel you like a heatwave on my skin
Sweeter than the 'rita on my lips
Come and show me just how hot it gets
'Cause I'm ready to learn, baby, learn
Girl, you got me turning red hot from that kiss
Wanna spend the summer just like this, so
Do me your worst, no, I don't even care if it hurts
If you're the sun, baby, I'm ready to burn, baby, burn, mm

Haha, I'll take a 'Rona with a lime, with your body on the side
I'm talking oceans and slow hands, yeah, pull me like the tide
Roll up and pour up and cheers to the view
It's all good if I'm with you

I wanna feel you like a heatwave on my skin
Sweeter than the 'rita on my lips
Come and show me just how hot it gets
'Cause I'm ready to learn, baby, learn
Girl, you got me turning red hot from that kiss
Wanna spend the summer just like this, so
Do me your worst, no, I don't even care if it hurts
If you're the sun, baby, I'm ready to burn, baby, burn
Burn, baby, burn

Oh, we living wild and young
Oh, ain't gonna cover up
Oh, so can I get another one?
And then another one, then another one

I wanna feel you like a heatwave on my skin
Sweeter than the 'rita on my lips (On my lips)
Come and show me just how hot it gets
'Cause I'm ready to learn, baby, learn (Yeah, yeah)
Girl, you got me turning red hot from that kiss
Wanna spend the summer just like this, so
Do me your worst, no, I don't even care if it hurts
If you're the sun, baby, I'm ready to burn, baby, burn
