

Time

Jake Banfield

Looking at my window on a rainy day
Alone in my head but not much to say
Yeah
Mmm
Feeling like I'm fighting for my life
You know that my sight
Something just ain't right
Woah
Mmm
And I'm when here
Feel like there is nothing else to do
I just can't get my mind off of you
It hurts inside but I'll be fine

Just give me some time
Just give me some time
I'll be fine I'll be alright
Just give me some time
I need to heal
It don't feel real no
Just give me some time
Time
Time
Time
Yeah
Mmm

Do I ever cross your mind
'Cause you stay on mine all the time
Staying in my covers thinking what you were doing
Wondering who the next guy is you are pursuing
'Cause you been on my mind up on the daily
'Can we go back when you called me baby
When you used to drive me really crazy
I really miss it
But I just need some time

Just give me some time
I'll be fine I'll be alright
Just give me some time
I need to heal
It don't feel real no
Just give me some time, yeah
Just give me some time
Some time
Some time
Just give me some time
Just give me some time
I'll be fine I'll be alright
Just give me some time
I need to heal
Mmm
