

Saviours of the City

Jake Bugg

Silence, no crying
Searching for the ones I couldn't save
Call out through the fall-out
Breaking every mirror on our way

It's all on us
The road's in the dust
We were born to be
Saviours of the city
We were never meant to see

Worth saving? While they're playing
In the craters we created yesterday
Smiling with violence
Helps blind us to the lies and our mistakes

It's all on us
The road's in the dust
We were born to be
Saviours of the city we were never meant to see
We were never meant to see

It's all on us
Gold in to rust
We were born to be
Saviours of the city
We were never meant to free

Born to be
Saviours of the city
We were never meant to see

It's all on us
Gold in to rust
We were born to be
Saviours of the city we were never meant to free
