

Blue Eyed Butterfly

Jake Coco

The good love of someone new was all I needed to get me through this slump I'm in, and get me back on my feet again. Now i'm a new man without my fears feeling stronger than I felt in the p ast three years of living and loving and laughing my days and m y nights away. And now that I know you can I tell you how I've waited for you for sometime Ive had your voice upon my mind for days and weeks and nights at times....

Hey Jo, what do you know about your ecstasy
Are you the new love drug or is passion getting the best of me
The rest of me agrees with what I see, I think that you and me should be Complicated Lovers

A good tune and a bit to drink, was all I needed to make me thi nk and contemplate, her recipe to infatuate.
My blue sky-eyed butterfly, she blinks her wings two times and I am captivated, celebrate my soul. And now that I know you can I tell you how I feel, I think that I can fly like delta sky l ike turpentine you get me high oh my so high...

Open all your doors tonight, be yourself....it feels alright...

Hey Jo, what do you know about your ecstasy
Are you the new love drug or is my heart getting the best of me
The rest of me agrees with what I see, I think that you and me
should be
Complicated Lovers
