

Sandcastles in the Rain

Jake Coco

This is new, and this is real
Passion burns and now I feel alive
Summer storms and serenades carry on the starlight waves tonight
t
Oh the world is beautiful
I'm happy here with you

Because we belong right where we are
I'm better now you are in my heart
Were watching the world disintegrate
Sand-castles in the rain, but I'll be fine
The ocean's on my side

Walk the shore and take my hand
Telling secrets to the sand and I
You're blue-
eyed angel bliss, a kiss from you is more than just a kiss
Just because we fell on love
Doesn't make it wrong

Because we belong right where we are
I'm better now you are in my heart
Were watching the world disintegrate
Sand-castles in the rain, but I'll be fine
The ocean's on my side
