I slept away the morning and half the afternoon man, California's killing me like a snow angel in June.

I really should get out of here before I go insane but I'm addicted to a lot of things besides your cheap cocaine.

and I'm afraid that all of my mistakes are all you see you know I need you won't you stay, I need you now I'm breaking down, I'm breaking out won't you stay and save me now cuz I'm breaking down and I'm breaking out

and I need you now

I spent another night with you and everything's the same for once my life was colorful for once this heart was tame

I guess I'm wrapped up in your attitude overwhelmed by sex appeal I want to reach my hand out now and touch something that's real and I'm afraid that all of my mistakes are all you see

you know I need you

won't you stay, I need you now
and I'm breaking out

Every time I think of you I get a little crazier inside my head where are you now every other thought I have is you and me, it's killing me baby

won't you stay, I need you now
Won't you stay and save me now
and I'm breaking out
