

Goodbye

Jake Miller

Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dream
Didn't know Iâ€™d have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?
Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dream
Didn't know Iâ€™d have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?

Somewhere down the road I guess we took a wrong turn
I took your pictures, lit a match and watch them all burn
I canâ€™t take anymore break ups, or make ups
So straight up, I wonâ€™t be there tomorrow when you wake up
But wait up, listen baby girl donâ€™t get it twisted
We gave it all we had, attempted everything to fix it
Another broken heart, I canâ€™t risk it
Girl its plain is simple, we took a shot and we missed it
And now the place I piss in, is where the memories of us are livin
Down the drain, no more pain
But baby I ainâ€™t kidding, when I tell you that youâ€™ll always have a plac e in my life
But tonight Iâ€™ma make it right
Yeah, Iâ€™ma say

Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dream
Didnâ€™t know Iâ€™ll have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?
Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dream
Didnâ€™t know Iâ€™d have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?

Yeah, I guess Iâ€™m back at square 1,
Our love is rare, itâ€™s too bad it wasnâ€™t well done
Yeah we had a good run, never reached the finish line
Wish that we could start again, wish we could go back in time
Wish we could have seen the future, now weâ€™re history
Consistently sending me text, saying that youâ€™re missing me
Iâ€™m tryina forget about you, baby girl youâ€™re killing me
And when you hear that last line, youâ€™ll probably be pissed at me
But what can you, girl Iâ€™m tryna do me
Clean, slate, fresh start, baby Iâ€™m a new me
I promise that youâ€™ll always have a place in my life
But tonight Iâ€™ma make it right
Yeah, Iâ€™ma say

Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dreams
Didnâ€™t know Iâ€™ll have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?
Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dreams
Didnâ€™t know Iâ€™d have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?

Somewhere down the road I guess we took a wrong turn
I took your pictures, lit a match and watch them all burn
Somewhere down the road I guess we took a wrong turn
I took your pictures, lit a match and watch them all burn
I watched them all burn

Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dreams

Didn't know I'll have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?
Goodbye to the memories, goodbye to the dreams
Didn't know I'd have to find my way back
Can I just let this be?
