

Green

Jake Miller

Ever since you walked through my door
I stopped looking, stopped looking for more
Knew from the start
All that you are is all that I need
Cause you turned my room to a field of dreams
And as far as I can see
Baby with you
The grass is always green

Yeah
I said the grass is always
Green
Ah yeah yeah yeah yeah
The grass is always
Green like the light when I'm speeding to you every night
Green like your eyes when the sun is hitting them just right
I love it
Yeah, I fucking love it
Mmm
Green like my money
I just want to spend it all on you
Green like your dress on the floor
That's my favorite view
I love it
I swear I fucking love it
La da da da da, yeah

You got a taste so sweet so fine
Don't need a taste of the other side
Yeah I feel so blessed on my side of the fence
Cause ever since you walked through my door
I stopped looking, stopped looking for more
Knew from the start
All that you are is all that I need
Cause you turned my room to a field of dreams
And as far as I can see
Baby with you
The grass is always green

Yeah
I said the grass is always (Always)
Green
Ah yeah yeah yeah yeah
The grass is always
You a 20 out a 10
Thanking God like amen
You a angel in disguise floating over my bed
I swear you just impress me
You super sexy
Blocked all my exes
Don't fucking text me
Cause it'll just go green
Yeah this feeling I've been feeling
Got me believing that its never going to change
(It's never going to change)
Yeah I'm here to stay

Don't you ever change cause

You got a taste so sweet so fine
Yeah I feel so blessed on my side of the fence
Cause ever since you walked through my door
I stopped looking, stopped looking for more
Knew from the start
All that you are is all that I need
Cause you turned my room to a field of dreams
And as far as I can see
Baby with you
Baby with you
