

I See Ghosts!

Jake Miller

Waking up from the wind through the blinds
And it feels like a sign
Cause my windows shut, TVs on
Have I lost my mind?
I see your silhouette at the end of my bed
Till I rub my eyes, and you're gone
Woahhh

Cause you haunt me every weekend
And I'm having trouble sleeping
Cause there's something in my room
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see you
And it feels like you're immortal
Cause your loves so paranormal
And no matter what I do
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see you

And I wonder from time to time
Do I float through your mind?
Do I fuck up your night?
And I wonder through all the noise
Do ya ever hear my voice
Yeah, or maybe you moved on with someone new Cause lately I feel like I'm dead to you
It's when I least expect it
You show up and wreck shit
Need you out of my life
Yeah you ruin every Saturday night

Cause you haunt me every weekend
And I'm having trouble sleeping
Cause there's something in my room
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see you
And it feels like you're immortal
Cause your loves so paranormal
And no matter what I do
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see
I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see you
Need you out of my life
Out, out, out of my life

I see ghosts, I see ghosts, I see you
