

The Rapids

Jake Miller

Here we go, both feet in
There's no turning back now
Just you and me, picking up speed whoa
Rising tides but in your eyes
The only that I'll drown
Just you and me
That's all I need whoa

To hell and back
The good days and the bad
I wanna do it all with you
We'll dance, we'll cry
Long as I'm by your side
I don't mind heading into

Unknown water
It might get rough
But whoa
No matter what happens
We'll make it through the rapids

And some days we might get turned around
We won't know where we're going but
We'll figure it out like we always do
I'm just enjoying the view
'Cause you look so sweet
With the wind in your hair
We could crash
I wouldn't even care
I would follow you anywhere
Yeah I'd follow you anywhere

To hell and back
The good days and the bad
I wanna do it all with you
We'll dance, we'll cry
Long as I'm by your side
I don't mind heading into

Unknown water
It might get rough
But whoa
No matter what happens
We'll make it through the rapids

We'll make it through the rapids
'Cause you look so sweet
With the wind in your hair
We could crash
I wouldn't even care
I would follow you anywhere
