

Hey Can I Buy You A Beer

Jake Owen

Ten percent down, little house with a piece of land
Girl, we've come a long way from a couple stamps on our hands
And a cover band dance to a Mellencamp song
We didn't know then that it wouldn't take long till it was ours
Now here we are
Girl, you stole my heart

That smokey night in a sawdust dive, our neon stars lined up
I was there to drink, last call, last thing I was thinkin' 'bout
then was love
We caught lightnin' in a Miller Lite can
Call it good timin' or the Good Lord's plan
Ain't it crazy how we got here?
From a look my way, and a "Hey, can I buy you a beer?"

Yeah, I kissed you for the first time over by the ATM
I didn't know if it was you or the drink when the buzz kicked in Yeah, I didn't want the night to end, so we sipped 'em slow
Now we're makin' plans, talkin' down the road
Funny how it goes
Lookin' back now, girl, who'd have known

That smokey night in a sawdust dive, our neon stars lined up
I was there to drink, last call, last thing I was thinkin' 'bout
then was love
We caught lightnin' in a Miller Lite can
Call it good timin' or the Good Lord's plan
Ain't it crazy how we got here?
From a look my way, and a "Hey, can I buy you a beer?"
"Hey, can I buy you a beer?"

Most drinks don't mean a thing
But that one changed everything

That smokey night in a sawdust dive, our neon stars lined up
I was there to drink, last call, last thing I was thinkin' 'bout
then was love
We caught lightnin' in a Miller Lite can
Call it good timin' or the Good Lord's plan
Ain't it crazy how we got here?
From a look my way, and a "Hey, can I buy you a beer?"
From a look my way, and a "Hey, can I buy you a beer?"
"Hey girl, can I buy you a beer?"
