

Made for You

Jake Owen

Water towers are made for hearts and names
And Friday nights are made for football games
And falling leaves are made for falling in
And front porch steps are made for goodnight kissing

And I was made for you
Yeah I was made for you

Summer jobs are made for spending cash
And second dates are made for going fast
And early curfews are made for sneaking past
And 2 AM's made for pissed off dads

And I was made for you
Yeah I was made for you

Like a ship without a sea
Or a song without a melody
Oh, I don't know where I'd be or what I'd do
Yeah 'cause I was made for you

Smokey bars are made for "How bout a dance?"
And open roads are made for holding hands
And laid back seats are made for young love
And two pink lines are made for growing up

And I was made for you
Yeah I was made for you

Like a ship without a sea
Or a song without a melody
Yeah I don't know where I'd be or what I'd do
'Cause I was made for you

Well tiny shoes are made for tiny feet
And my two arms are made for where you sleep
And the sky was made for the moon and stars
And you were made to steal my heart

And I was made for you
Yeah I was made for you
