

God Bless

Jake Wesley Rogers

Mama's little gun on the back of your head
Got a little drunk ordered jockstraps on the internet
You taste just like honey on cornbread
I feel so alone when you're not in my bed

God bless the straight man in a dress
God bless threesomes when I'm celibate
God bless doing mushrooms with an atheist
God bless it's a beautiful fucking mess
God bless the trans kid in Texas
God bless the gods that don't exist
Sometimes I wish it all would end
But god bless it's a beautiful fucking mess
God bless, god bless
God bless, god bless
God bless

Daddy's little sword going through your heart
Got a little bored bought gas with your fathers corporate card
We're having car sex in a business park
Like we're the last couple on Noah's ark

God bless the straight man in a dress
God bless threesomes when I'm celibate
God bless doing mushrooms with an atheist
God bless it's a beautiful fucking mess
God bless the trans kid in Texas
God bless the gods that don't exist
Sometimes I wish it all would end
But god bless it's a beautiful fucking mess
God bless, god bless
God bless, god bless

God bless the chandelier in my chest
It broke but I'm putting it together again
One day it'll shine brighter than the rest
God bless it's a beautiful fucking mess

God bless the trans kid in Texas
God bless the gods that don't exist
Sometimes I wish it all would end
But god bless it's a beautiful fucking mess
God bless, god bless
God bless, god bless
