

Diamond

Jake Zyrus

I have to admit I am in the rough
Try to forget but it's just so tough, yeah
Hungry for peace and whenever I ease it
The more it just brings me down, no, no
But I still hang on

For if there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds
So I don't mind it comin' my way, no
I'm tired of putting out the fire
Freedom is all I desire
If there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds

I know I will be a diamond, diamond, diamond
I know I will be a diamond, diamond, a diamond, oh

People say they'll hear you
But they don't really understand
It's really so exhausting
They're tryna reach out for someone's hand
Keep on tellin' me it gets better
It's hard to see when all I get is bad weather, no
But I still hang on

If there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds
So I don't mind it comin' my way, no
I'm tired of putting out the fire
Freedom is all I desire
If there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds

I know I will be a diamond, diamond, diamond
I know I will be a diamond, diamond, a diamond, oh

Hunt for me, press on me
I don't mind seeing it comin' my way
Hunt for me, press on me
I don't mind seeing it comin' my way
Hunt for me, press on me
I don't mind seeing it comin' my way
Hunt for me, press on me
I don't mind seeing it comin' my way

If there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds
So I don't mind it comin' my way, no
I'm tired of putting out the fire
Freedom is all I desire
If there's no pressure there'll be no diamonds

I know I will be a diamond, diamond, diamond
I know I will be a diamond, diamond, a diamond, oh
