

Looking at the coffee table
You'll see perfect pictures
If only they knew about us
Sure, we'll cook dinner together
We're never late in birthday parties
But tomorrow, it's the opposite

For we'll make bad decisions
We'll throw words that we'll regret
Prideful arguments
'Cause we know

It's not always easy
'Cause if we meet on the flipside
All we'll see are tangled threads
But if we meet on the other side
We'll see it all unknotted
Right now it looks like
We will never make sense
But once this tapestry is done
We'll see what love truly is
Once this tapestry is done
We'll believe what love truly is

Be together in every season
Laughing times without a reason
I never want this to end
But I know tomorrow
Everything will be different

For we'll make bad decisions
We'll throw words that we'll regret
Prideful arguments
'Cause we know

It's not always easy
'Cause if we meet on the flipside
All we'll see are tangled threads
But if we meet on the other side
We'll see it all unknotted
Right now it looks like
We will never make sense
But once this tapestry is done
We'll see what love truly is
Once this tapestry is done
We'll believe what love truly is
