

All My Love

James Arthur

I had a feeling me and you might've been the same sign
I had a feeling that our sun and our moon are aligned
Did we meet before here or in another life?
Yeah, I got a feeling you are my reason

I was swept away when Mercury fell into retrograde
And there's no escape, so accept your fate
I'm forever in debt to your serenade

You can take all my love
I hope that it's enough
Oh, my love
You're the one I will trust
For the rest of my life
I will fight for us
With all my love

Nothing ever comes easy, but with you it's a walk in the park
Like you really see me, like you see all the signs in the stars
I still hear a faint echo of my chequered past
But you put me on blast, and I know it won't last
So long as you turn around and show me that sweet, sweet ass

You can take all my love
I hope that it's enough
Oh, my love
You're the one I will trust
For the rest of my life
I will fight for us
With all my love

With all my love
With all my love
With all my love
With all my love

You can take all my love
I hope that it's enough
Oh, my love
You're the one I will trust
For the rest of my life
I will fight for us
With all my love
