

Duffle Bag

James Arthur

Tears in the back of your mouth
You told me that I've become somebody else Someone you don't particularly like
And I know who you're talking about
I promise he won't show his face round here again
Promise I've really left him behind

Now you're walking out my dreams with your duffle bag, you kiss
me one last time
I wish it was like before when you love me like I was the only
boy
Honey, don't let go

Is there anything that can make this alright?
I'll put you first, I will make you my wife
I know you're hearing my heart breaking
Honey, don't let go

If you need me to be there, I'll be there in 5
Let's make a 2 hour drive through red lights
I need you hear in my arms, baby
Honey, don't let go

I'm waiting, only you got me waiting, only you got me waiting,
only you got me waiting all night

Now watch, fears taking over my mouth
I've been pushing the people that I love away
I wish I could just take it all back

Now you're walking out my dreams with your duffle bag, you kiss
me one last time
I wish it was like before when you love me like I was the only
boy
Oh honey, don't let go

Is there anything that can make this alright?
I'll put you first, I will make you my wife
I know you're hearing my heart breaking
Honey, don't let go

If you need me to be there, I'll be there in 5
Let's make a 2 hour drive through red lights
I need you hear in my arms, baby
Honey, don't let go

I'm waiting, only you got me waiting, only you got me waiting,
only you got me waiting all night
