

It Hurts

James Arthur

Debauchery is my life
I threw my chance away
And as my bones dishevel
I regret that day

When all I ever wanted
Was right there in my hands
And all I ever needed
Was you, oh you... You... Was you, yeah

Oh my greeny-blue eyed, should-have-been wife
You should have been there
Oooh, oooh it hurts
And oh, my beautiful child
I've had some life
You should have seen it
Oooh, oooh it hurts

And foolery was my best trait
Oh, I'd trade it for you right now

Coz all I ever wanted
Was right there in my hands
And all I ever needed
Was you, oh you... You... Was you, ey

Oh my greeny-blue eyed, should-have-been wife
You should have been there
Oooh, oooh it hurts
And oh, my beautiful child
I've had some life
You should have seen it
Oooh, oooh it hurts

You send shivers down my spine
You send shivers down my spine
You send shivers down my spine
You send shivers down my spine
You send shivers down my spine
You send, you send

Oh my greeny-blue eyed, should-have-been wife
You should have been there
Oooh, oooh it hurts
And oh, my beautiful child
I've had some life
You shoulda seen it
Oooh, oooh it hurts
