Last Time

James Arthur

It won't be long before I'm leaving here
Then I'll be far away from you
You can get up to all your troubles girl
I can start getting over you

I'm sick and tired of hearing all your lies
When you talk to me girl, you've got weak alibies
I'm tired of wearing out all your thoughtless ways
You keep messing with my dreams
you keep playing with my head

This is the last time that I am going to feel this way
This is the last time that I am going to have to lose my way
I already love feeling the way I do
I'm already, I'm already over you

And all my friends they tell me you're no good for me
And the rumors they are so true
But I will tell myself that talk is cheap
But all I see now is talk in you

I'm sick and tired of hearing all your lies
When you talk to me girl you've got weak alibies
I'm tired of wearing out all your thoughtless ways
You keep messing with my dreams
You keep playing with my head

this is the last time I am going to feel this way this is the last time I am going to have to lose my way
I already love feeling the way I do

You always make me out to be this person I'm not I've never given before I gave you all that I've got Not a lot but you were going through some stuff back then
I assured you I'd change I'd never be that again
You see you've got all the characteristics of a girl I need
But treading inches will pass so let me off your lead
Take your overbearing love grudge back
When I get home from the world, I don't expect an attack
This is the last time anyone ever throws me off track
I'd rather be on my own so you just stay where you sat

And this is the last time I am going to feel this way
And this is the last time I am going to feel this was I've had enough of feeling the way I do.
I'm already, I'm already over you
