

Doesn't Just Happen

James Blake

Falling in love (Doesn't just happen)
Staying in love (Doesn't just happen)
Falling in love (Doesn't just happen)
Staying in love (Doesn't just happen)

Yeah

If being a good man was easy, I'd still be me, cah I do shit the hard way

You don't know who's who

My girlfriend hates me, maybe deep down I do too

We used to jack niggas in the morning, cah most man didn't have cash when work's done

This type of dinner have your jawline thinner, man gonna think you had work done

See a man maintainin'

See a man, wait, nah, see a man complainin'

I give her one order, I don't need restraining, none of this shit came easy

Man put my name on a wall

Only right, all you niggas throw mud at it

Yeah, I got dirty money, but show me a pound or a dollar, and it doesn't have blood on it (Doesn't just happen)

Left us out in the dark, we sold fiends, the light where the end of the tunnel is

Therapy couch like Tony Soprano, black Viano

Hit an artery, stabbed in the major

That's the Carter, cash or card though?

I got the country's sins on finance

I know we all wanna make it to heaven, but it— (Doesn't just happen)

Maybe you stopped putting in time

Somewhere along the line

And everything good

And everything good

Doesn't just happen

Doesn't just happen

Falling in love (Doesn't just happen)

Staying in love (Doesn't just happen)

Falling in love (Doesn't just happen)

Staying in love (Doesn't just happen)

Falling in love (Doesn't just happen)

Staying in love (Doesn't just happen)

And everything good

And everything good

Doesn't just happen

Doesn't just happen
Doesn't just happen
