

Fire The Editor

James Blake

Fire the editor
He's killing the flame
Fire the editor
I know there's no place for blame
But he's trying to save me from failure
But I've already failed
'Cause I let him in
Oh, never again

I'm not afraid
I've already failed so many times
You're the only one on my side
I'm counting myself
I've already failed so many times

Well, I'm not afraid
I've already failed so many times
Oh, I'm not afraid
In counting myself
I've already failed so many times

And if I see him again
Best believe me
We'll be having words
(We'll be having words)
And if I see him again
Best believe me
We'll be having words
(We'll be having words)

Oh, I'm not afraid
(Not afraid)
I've already failed so many times
You're the only one on my side
Counting myself
I've already failed so many times
