

If You Can Hear Me

James Blake

Dad, if you can hear me
I chased it all too far
I couldn't seem to find my way
Back to the car
I followed your lead
Trusted anyone with my heart

Dad, if you can hear me
We speak less than I'd like
I don't know how I grew away from the vine
Took your lead
I followed your dream
And I woke up from it even more tired