

Trying Times

James Blake

As we go through trying times
As we go through

You know I'm shredded
By the time I'm home
Like polystyrene foam
And the jealous
End up alone
'Cause there are things that they can never know

I'm an eyesore
You're a sight for
Sore eyes
You're the life force
You're the life force
I would die for
I would die for
Stay alive for

As we go through trying times
As we go
As we go
As we go through trying times

I'm breaking
I hide it well
'Cause I can't afford to replace the shell
And the anxious
End up alone
'Cause there are far too many things we can't control

I'm an eyesore
You're a sight for
Sore eyes
You're the life force
You're the life force
I would die for

I would die for
Be terrified for Simplify for
And stay alive, for

As we go through trying times
As we go
As we go
As we go
Through trying times
Trying
Trying
Trying
Trying
Trying
I'm trying

As we go
As we go

I'm trying
