

Why Does Everything Happen To Me

James Brown

Why does everything have to happen to me?
I wonder why does everything have to happen to me?
I'm blue, I'm blue and I'm lonely, by myself and I'm in misery

So many strange things happen to me all day long
Don't you know, yeah
Strange, strange things happen to me all day long
I'm blue and I'm lonely, everything I do is wrong

Don't let me weep, pretty baby

Tell me pretty baby, do I have to kill myself?
Oh yeah I wanna know, do I have to kill myself?
I'd rather die here baby, to see you with somebody else

Yeah, ohhh baby
