

Eurydice

James Cole

I need your eyes, I need your eyes
Without your eyes, I'm nothin'
I need your eyes, I need your eyes
Without your eyes, I'm nothin'

In the darkness, where I find you
In the darkness, where I bind you
In the darkness, where I choose you
In the darkness, where I loose you
(Where I loose you-eh)

So I went down, so unable to fuck around
Pulled up in the Hades, in my brand new Mercedes
Frozen time on my wrist watch, now I gotta rock
Gotta make 'em all weep son, disturb their fuckin' sleep son

In the darkness, where I find you
In the darkness, where I bind you
In the darkness, where I choose you
In the darkness, where I loose you
(Where I loose you-eh)

Descending down
Do you remember the sound
Of my voice
Can you taste me?
Where are you now?
Do you remember the clown
In the void
Too scared to face me

Descending down
Do you remember the sound
Of my voice
Can you taste me?
Where are you now?
Do you remember the clown
In the void
Too scared to face me

(I need your eyes, I need your eyes
Without your eyes, I'm nothin')
(I need your eyes, I need your eyes
Without your eyes, I'm nothin')
(Nothin')
