

Power Of The Reaper

James Durbin

I feel the burning
Watch the stars as they fall from the sky
I hear the warning
Another savior of the night has died
Now that tears have fallen
All at once our hands to the ground
At the voices calling
And the world's falling down

Heal the balance of the dawn
Free from the malice and pain
There's a war inside
I give my life

To seal the dark
Holy to The One
Higher and higher
To meet the power of the reaper
Concealed in fire
Holy to The One
Find inside
The will and power of the reaper

I feel it binding
Drawing nearer I can hear him say
Blackstar is shining
Only fear will guide your way

To seal the dark
Holy to The One
Higher and higher
To meet the power of the reaper
Concealed in fire
Holy to The One
Find inside
The will and power of the reaper

Nights are always neverending
For they all will return to dust
Following shadows for eternity
Preying on the lost
But I see a blinding light that signals the end
Savior of night offering life
All will live again

I give my life

To seal the dark
Holy to The One
Higher and higher
To meet the power of the reaper
Concealed in fire
Holy to The One
Find inside
The will and power of the reaper

Savior of the night

Look to the light
