

Resist

James Durbin

When they find me
They find a man with nothing left to do
So what am I still doing here
When they find me
They find a man with nothing left to lose
Nothing left to lose here

Maybe there's a part of me that loves to feel this way
So I'll lock it up and leave it somewhere they could never see it
When they find me, they find a man with nothing but the truth
And they better believe it

When I leave all this behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to
When I leave all this behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to
Don't fight the changes you can't stop
Or all the things that you still love
And leave all them behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to

When I leave all this behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to
When I leave all this behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to
Don't fight the changes you can't stop
Or all the things that you still love
And leave all them behind
I'm gonna miss you
But I can't resist to
