

Empty Me

James Fortune & FIYA

Want to be more like you
I want to live just for you
How can I get to this place
When I'm broken and shattered
My life is filled with worries
Unforgiveness lies within
I'm ready to come out of this
How can I get there

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours, all yours
Empty me

Want to be more like you
I want to live just for you
How can I get to this place
When I'm broken and shattered
My life is filled with worries
Unforgiveness lies within
I'm ready to come out of this
How can I get there

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours, all yours

Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Give me more of you

Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Give me more of you

Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Empty me, Lord
Give me more of you

I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
Only you can satisfy

I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
Only you can satisfy

I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
I want more of you Lord
Only you can satisfy

Only you can satisfy
Only you can satisfy
Only you can satisfy
Only you can satisfy

Only you can satisfy
Only you can satisfy
Only you can satisfy

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours, all yours

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours, all yours

So I say empty me, Lord
Take out everything not like you
Everything in my life not pleasing you
Please take it away
So I can be all yours, all yours
