

Forever

James Fortune & FIYA

With nails in his hands
With nails in his feet
A crown of thorns on his head
Not a mumbling word
And you stayed there
And I won't forget what you gave up for me

And Forever you're my savior
Forever my redeemer
Forever I'll remember the price that you paid
Forever you are holy
Forever you are worthy
Forever I'll sing glory to your name

You're good
You're good
Forever I'll declare that you are good

You're good
You're good
Forever I'll declare that you are good

You're good
You're good
Forever I'll declare that you are good

You're good
You're good
Forever I'll declare that you are good

So faithful
So holy
So righteous
So worthy of my praise

And Forever you're my savior
Forever my redeemer
Forever I'll remember the price that you paid
Forever you are holy
Forever you are worthy
Forever I'll sing glory to your name
