

I Forgive Me Reprise

James Fortune & FIYA

It's time to let it go
You weren't created to be perfect
Somebody needs to let it go right now
You, you're not what you went through
What you went through doesn't define you
What you went through only prepared you
For God has already prepared for you
Come on somebody needs to let it go right now
In your mind
(Forgetting those things which are behind)
Yeah what you did, what you, what you didn't do
(I'm lettin' it go)
What you allowed other people to do to you
(Goin' after Jesus)
You can't erase it
(Goin' after Jesus)
But you can press toward the mark
With your eyes fixed on Jesus, buddy
Say I'm lettin' it go

I'm lettin' it go
(I'm lettin' it go)
I'm lettin' it go
(I'm lettin' it go)
You won't steal no
(You won't steal my future anymore)
Of every disappointment
(I'm lettin' it go)
Of every lie they told on me
(I'm lettin' it go)
And you won't steal
(You won't steal my future anymore)
What my mama did to me
(I'm lettin' it go)
What my daddy didn't do
(I'm lettin' it go)
I'm lettin' it go
(You won't steal my future anymore)
I'm lettin' go of my past
(I'm lettin' it go)
And I'm holding on to my future
(I'm lettin' it go)
'Cause Jesus is my future, know
(You won't steal my future anymore)

Anymore, somebody come on, let it go, get up there
Open up your mouth and release a sound
(You won't steal my future anymore)
See the Devil is crying
I'm letting go of my past
And I'm chasing after my future
(You won't steal my future anymore)
The Devil is a liar, the devil is a liar
I said the Devil doesn't like ya
You won't steal it
(You won't steal my future anymore)
It's mine

Every promise he gave me
Every promise he gave me
You won't steal it
(You won't steal my future anymore)
For the promises of God
Are "Yes" and "Amen"
I said the promises of God
Are "Yes" and "Amen"

We trust you today
We trust you today
It doesn't matter what I see
It doesn't matter what I feel
But I'm pressing toward the mark
I'm pressing after your Word
I'm pressing after your promises
'Cause that's what you said about me
Yeah, and I trust every word
I trust every word
I believe Lord
(Thank you God)
Everything you said about me Jesus
(Thank you that we still have a future)
