

Let Go

James Hersey

I see you write back
[?] on your own
Scared to go to sleep
Staring at your phone
Such a bad feeling
But you shut it down
Swearing on your life
It's all over now

Well I got a million people to see
Still I take my time
Trying to look out after you and me
You gotta be
The coldest
Your gotta be
Out your fucking mind kid
And I'm like this cause I'm

I'm out baby, I'm done now and I'm gone
I tried babe and I went crazy you know it
I'm not built for this shit
Built to be broken
I'm out baby I'm done now and I'm - smoked

Try to escape
Every word that you spoke
Ever mistake
That I made and you choked on
If I tried harder
I'd see more than you know
But the problem is that your promised broke
(yeah shit)

She looked me in the eyes man and she swore
On my sun, moon and my stars
What you want more?
What you want more?
What you want more?
You must be out your mind kid
And I'm like this cause I'm

I'm out baby, I'm done now and I'm gone
I tried babe and I went crazy you know it
I'm not built for this shit
Built to be broken
I'm out baby I'm done now and I'm smoked

I tried babe and I went crazy you know it
I'm not built for this shit
Built to be broken
I'm out baby I'm done now and I'm gone
I'm out baby I'm done now and I'm

I can't tell you about it
You can't see it baby just a different [?]
I feel sorry for you
