

Chinese food tonight? My favorite thing to do
Our dates are so magical, you know what you do
We eat the food, so bad but so good
It makes us fat but we've got each other (what?) I'm not crazy, desperate. Won't someone love me? (probably not if I'm being honest)
I throw my men to the wall like spaghetti
Hoping something sticks. I'm left sticky (ew)

The waves are crashing
I'm lying paralyzed from love making
3x feeling his love
I can't even move

You grab me and I'm obsessed
You put two fingers and I'm obsessed
The buttered pasta, still obsessed
The eggs in be, there are more words than obsessed
And I want you back in my life
Please stay and we can make it right
Please stay and I will make it right (rhyming is hard)
Yeah you know it's right

The waves are crashing
I'm lying paralyzed from love making (oh yeah)
3x feeling his love (feels like pizza)
I can't even move

The waves are crashing
I'm lying paralyzed from love making (oh yeah)
3x feeling his love (feels like pizza)
I can't even move
