

Breaking

James Maslow

I remember when you caught my eye
Must've played it back a thousand times
I, I
And the way you moved across the room
I already fell in love with you
My, my

Time slows down
Rearrange my thoughts right now
Another sleepless night I found
Remembering you

But I can't stop, hold my breath
Waiting for a love that's past
Breaking away, away
But every time I close my eyes
Thoughts of us through my mind
Breaking today, today, today

Baby I don't wanna let it go
But I feel your body getting cold
Why, why?
Maybe we can bring it back to life
Maybe some things should not be revived
Bye, goodbye

Time slows down
Rearrange my thoughts right now
Another sleepless night I found
Remembering you

But I can't stop, hold my breath
Waiting for a love that's past
Breaking away, away
But every time I close my eyes
Thoughts of us through my mind
Breaking today, today, today

Time slows down
Rearrange my thoughts right now
No more sleepless nights somehow
Forgetting all the fights
No more sleepless nights
No more, no more
Time slows down
Rearrange my thoughts right now
No more sleepless nights somehow
Forgetting all the fights
No more sleepless nights
No more, no more

But I can't stop, hold my breath
Waiting for a love that's past
Breaking away, away
But every time I close my eyes
Thoughts of us through my mind
Breaking today, today, today
