

Cry

James Maslow

Let it go
The anger in your eyes
Stop crying
Let it go
Lord I know
She's doing all she can
And I can't let it show
It'd break her heart

Who are you to leave me stranded here yeah?
Who are you to fill me up with fear?
Who are you?
I scream but you don't hear me
Why?

Now I just wanna cry
Yeah I just wanna cry
Nothing I haven't tried
Now I just wanna cry
Darling let me cry

Baby steps
It's overwhelming
But you got this
Take a breath
On your own
It's never felt so good
Baby you're not alone
Look in your heart

Who are you to leave me stranded here yeah?
Who are you to fill me up with fear?
Who are you?
I scream but you don't hear me
Why?

Now I just wanna cry
Yeah I just wanna cry
Nothing I haven't tried
Now I just wanna cry
Darling let me cry

Now it feels like
I'm breaking down
Cause we breaking up
Oh yeah
It was way too bad
To be good enough
Oh yeah
You felt no ways about it
I gave you everything
And nothing came about
Nothing, Nothing
We used to roleplay and foreplay
Provided you the entree
Everything gourmet
Heaven and hell

It could switch up on one day
You gave me that cold play
Live la vida loca always
Men do cry too
I can't speak for them
But I do
I lost me by wanting you
I lost me by wanting you

Now I just wanna cry
Yeah I just wanna cry
Nothing I haven't tried
Now I just wanna cry
Darling let me cry

Darling let me cry
Darling let me cry
