

Delirious

James Maslow

Yeah, c'mon

So godly, her presence is putting us all to shame
So vicious, that nobody dare even say her name
She'll make you beg for her love
And crush your heart with her hands
But so beautiful that you'll be willing to live in chains

Take me away
Take me away
Take me away

Your sex makes me delirious
I'll do anything you say
I can be your idiot
Play me like it's a game
The reason ain't mysterious
Nobody else fucks this way
You got me hooked so hard
My soul is yours to take
It's too late

Yeah, c'mon

So sexy, her body will drill you right through your bones
So high up the podium, nobody dares to go
Don't stare too long in her eyes
Or you might turn to stone
But dead or alive, you'll be kneeling beneath her throne

Take me away
Take me away
Take me away

Your sex makes me delirious
I'll do anything you say
I can be your idiot
Play me like it's a game
The reason ain't mysterious
Nobody else fucks this way
You got me hooked so hard
My soul is yours to take
It's too late

Hmmm

It's too late

Hey

This pain has no remedy

She is my fantasy

Sex is my enemy

Pushes my sanity

Hey

My soul is yours to take

It's too late

Your sex makes me delirious

I can be your idiot
You got me hooked so hard
My soul is yours to take
My heart is yours to take
Your sexy is to blame
It's too late
