

This House

James Maslow

I should've known that you'd feel this way
Baby don't throw it all away
Maybe your mind is playing games
'Cause you've never looked better than today

I will always love you
Even if you break my heart now
I will never let go
Even if you break my bones
I would still go to war
Even with a thousand soldiers
You will still be my home
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
Ain't never gonna bring this house down

(Woah, yeah)

You've gotta think different than before, no
Baby you've been acting insecure
Wish that I could put your mind at ease
You don't gotta worry anymore

I will always love you
Even if you break my heart now
I will never let go
Even if you break my bones
I would still go to war
Even with a thousand soldiers
You will still be my home
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
Ain't never gonna bring this house down

(Woah, yeah, yeah)

Never gonna bring us down
Never gonna stop me loving you
Wherever you may be right now
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
Ain't never gonna bring this house down (no, no)
Ain't never gonna bring this house down
