

You're The One (That Got Away)

James Maslow

Every word I didn't say
I wish you heard me
I thought you knew me
Should I remind you everyday
Just how pretty
You look to me

I could've took the time
Should've asked you to be mine
Now the moment's far behind
But if I just pretend
Do it all over again
I would take you by your hand and I would say

I was stupid
I was young
I didn't realize what I was giving up
Where was Cupid all along?
I wish that I could tell you how I feel
'Cause baby, you're the one that got away
That got away
Yeah, baby you're the one

You're a masterpiece to me
Beyond your body
Beyond your beauty
All those things I didn't see
Until our moments were only memories

I could've took the time
Should've asked you to be mine
Now the moment is far behind (hey)
But if I just pretend
Do it all over again
I would take you by your hand and I would say

I was stupid
I was young
I didn't realize what I was giving up
Where was Cupid all along?
I wish that I could tell you how I feel
Cause baby, you're the one that got away
Oh, got away
Yeah baby, you're the one

Let's try this again
Want to make it right
You got me on my knees
If it takes all night
I knew it from the start
I should've held your heart
Never let you go

Yeah, I was stupid
I was young
I didn't realize who I was giving up
Where was Cupid all along?

I wish I could tell you how I feel
'Cause baby

I was stupid
I was young
Where was Cupid all along?
'Cause baby, you're the one

Oh, you're the one
Yeah baby, you're the one that got away
Got away
