

New Day

James Morrison

Turn over all the pages starting over
We can start again
I know what it is we got to do
Make our enemies friends
We gotta face your weakness to be strong
And stare the beast in the eye
Well that's the only way that you're gonna get through
To the place in the sky

You know that where it ends, is where it all begins

I think we've been sleeping way too long
And now it's time to wake up
Look within the work is never done
We need a little shake up
Even if these walls fall down, we'll find a better place
Come on take my hand, this is feeling
It's feeling like a new day
It's feeling like a new day
Feeling like a new day

When we gonna see we're all sisters and brothers?
The world is yours and mine
If you don't count all your flaws as a blessing
It's such a waste of time
You can be anything that you want, oh the limits in your mind
It's only when you peer into the bottom of the bottle
Can you reach that high

You know that where it ends, is where it all begins

I think we've been sleeping way too long
And now it's time to wake up
Look within the work is never done
We need a little shake up
Even if these walls fall down, we'll find a better place
Come on take my hand, this is feeling
It's feeling like a new day

Everything is possible, somethings are illogical
Somethings have no time so just to take it or leave it
Maybe there's a reason why we drive ourselves insane
Just to try to figure out who it is to be complete
Yesterday is yesterday tomorrow ain't come
So watch your back and just relax
Sip your drink, smoke your zoot son
Just all we really got is right now anyway
Come on sing it with me
Cause it's a new day
New day
Feeling like a new day
