

So Beautiful

James Morrison

17, way too young for love
But I couldn't think of nothing else
I got mine, I never gave anything away
I was just thinking of myself

All the times you said you'd love me
I never gave you my reply
Had a dream it was over
And I woke up with a pain inside
And I didn't tell you and I don't know why, why, why

'Cause you're so beautiful, so beautiful, so beautiful to me
And you're everything that I'd ever need
It was a shame I couldn't see
And now that I've told you, I feel so free
'Cause you're so beautiful to me

Times moved on, I'm much older
I guess I've learned from my mistakes
For the first time, I think I know who I am
And I'm sorry that I made you mad, baby

'Cause you're so beautiful, so beautiful, so beautiful to me
And you're everything that I'd ever need
It was a shame I couldn't see
And now that I've told you, I feel so free
'Cause you're so beautiful, so beautiful to me

And if you leave me now, I won't be surprised
If you stay, well, I'll no longer hide

'Cause you're so beautiful, so beautiful, so beautiful to me
And you're everything that I'd ever need
It was a shame I couldn't see
And now that I've told you, I feel so free
'Cause you're so beautiful, you're so so beautiful to me

To me, to me, to me, to me, to me
