

Something Right

James Morrison

All the mistakes
The rough breaks
The bad taste
The heart aches
And getting nowhere

All the pitfalls
The brick walls
The fuck it alls
The bad calls
And all the despair

When I go another round
I can't help but fight myself
But you're blind to all the scars
That I can see so well

All I ever did was get it wrong
All I ever had was a sad song
But I can see the proof looking in your eyes
Yeah I must have done something right

Cause if I'm really such a fool
How come I'm the one who's lying next to you
It's in your touch when you hold me tight

Yeah I must have done something right
Must have done something right
Must have done something right

When you hold me
And pull me
From my knees
To my feet
I keep on rising
Rising

Nothing else fits
But your kiss
On my lips
I know that this
Is the only real thing
Real thing

You're the water in my well
That I've been so long without
You put your heart in to my hands
Like you never had a doubt

All I ever did was get it wrong
All I ever had was a sad song
But I can see the proof looking in your eyes
Yeah I must have done something right
Cause if I'm really such a fool
How come I'm the one who's lying next to you
It's in your touch when you hold me tight

Yeah I must have done something right
Something right
Something right
Yeah I must have done something right
I know I did something right

I feel it's my only gift
I know I was made for this
There's nothing else I'm sure of
But I'm certain of your love
I'm a thousand miles away from yesterday

All I ever did was get it wrong
All I ever had was a sad song
But I can see the proof looking in your eyes
That I must have done something right

Cause if I'm really such a fool
How come I'm the one who's lying next to you
It's in your touch when you hold me tight

I must have done something right
Something right
Something right
Yeah I must have done something right
Right, right, right, right, right
I know I did something right
Something right
I know I did something right

For the first time in my life
I know I did something right
