

Alone

James Newman

Where I've been and where I'll go
All these nights
And broken roads
Where this leads, I don't know
But I don't mind
If I'm not walkin' alone

Where I belong is wherever you are
And the distance and time, it can't keep us apart
Close my eyes, see you smile
And He lights up the path like a brighter moon
Keeps me going knowing that I got you
I'm alright, I'm alright

Don't matter where I've been or where I'll go
All these lines and broken walls
Where this leads, I don't know
But I don't mind if I'm not walking alone

Oh, and it's hard when I'm out in the cold
Lost in the dark with no way to get home
When it's tough, I look up
At the pieces of stars hanging over my head
I know that I'm not living just for myself
I got love, that's enough

Don't matter where I've been or where I'll go
All these lines and broken walls
Where this leads, I don't know
But I don't mind if I'm not walking alone

Yeah
No, not alone
Yeah

Don't know where I've been or where I'll go
All these lines and broken walls
Where this leads me, I don't know
But I don't mind if I'm not walking alone

Yeah-yeah
No baby
If I'm not walking alone

Where this leads, I don't know
But I don't mind if I'm not walking alone
