

When A Woman's Not Watching

James Otto

First thing he does when he boards the plane
Is slip off that wedding ring and orders a stiff drink
There's a blonde in the window seat
She's lookin' good and smiling sweet
So he gives her a wink you know the rest

'Cause when a woman's not watching
A man knows he can get away with murder
Thinkin' what she don't know won't hurt her
But he wouldn't deserve her
If temptation comes and he just can't resist
If every time she turns her back he steals a kiss
You'll see the man he is
When a woman's not watching

Three rows back's another married man
Who wears a promise on his left hand for the world to see
There's a girl comin' on real strong
But that man's gonna make it home faithfully
Like any good man would

If temptation comes and he just can't resist
If every time she turns her back he steals a kiss
You'll see the man he is
When a woman's not watching
