

fallin

James Reid

We were in the back seat
Still tryna sober up
Taking all the back streets
We both don't wanna rush

I'm so bad at hiding all my emotions
It's written on my face, I know that you notice

There's so much I could tell you
But I'm scared to fuck it up
In that moment I held you
I hope that it's enough

We didn't have much time so is it too much to say
It feels like falling
(Can't stop the feeling I'm falling)
Would you think I was crazy if I asked you to stay
I feel like falling
(Can't stop the feeling I'm falling)

Drinking under street lights
Like we're forever young
She said she's a good time
But the best is yet to come

How'd I get so good at hiding feelings?
But when you're laying on my chest you hear that beating

There's so much I could tell you
But I'm scared to fuck it up
In that moment I held you
I hope that it's enough

We didn't have much time so is it too much to say
It feels like falling
(Can't stop the feeling I'm falling)
Would you think I was crazy if I asked you to stay
I feel like falling
(Can't stop the feeling I'm falling)

We didn't have much time so is it too much to say
It feels like falling
Would you think I was crazy if I asked you to stay
I feel like falling

Can't stop the feeling I'm falling

It feels like falling, falling, falling...
It feels like falling, falling, falling...
