

Gone

James Reid

Tell me is it worth the war
What I'm fighting for
What I'm fighting for
Said you love me so
But babe you let me out the door
Cut me through the core
Were you even heard him for real
No no don't know how you feel
No no don't know how you feel, oh oh ohoh
And if you think my heart's made of steel
Guess you don't know how I feel
Guess you don't know how I feel, oh oh ohoh

And now I'm gone
You want me back again
And now I'm gone
You bring the death to life again

And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone

You want me back again
You want me back again
You want me back again
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
You want me back again
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
You want me back again

Ooh girl you haven't made up your mind
It was a waste of time
After all this time
Falling fast for you was a crime
You made your dark light shine
You made your dark light shine, oh oh

And now I'm gone
You want me back again
And now I'm gone
You bring the death to life again

And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone

You want me back again
You want me back again
You want me back again
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
You want me back again
And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone

And now I'm gone, and now I'm gone
You want me back again
