

Another Heart

James TW

We met when I was only just seventeen
And everything we did was so new to me
Oh, it was you, my love
You, my love

Took me to places that I, I'd never been
Showed me the brightest future I'd ever seen
Oh, it was you, my love
But it wasn't true, my love

Nothing ever goes the way you plan it
It takes a little time for you to understand it
Over time I've learnt whatever happens
Is gonna happen either way

But I-I-I
I wasn't ready for goodbye-ye-ye
I would've stayed right by your si-i-ide
But you can't say the same
'Cause you're the one that walked away

I-I-I
I tell myself that I'll be fi-i-ine
Then wipe the teardrops from my eye-eye-eyes
I'll pick up the parts
While you go and break another heart

I gave you everything and you wanted more
You pick me up to drop me when you were bored
And that was cruel, my love
Cruel, my love

I'm not the first you've broken, I should've know
If you don't want me then I'm better alone
That's the truth, my love
Yeah, that's the truth, my love

But I-I-I
I wasn't ready for goodbye-ye-ye
I would've stayed right by your si-i-ide
But you can't say the same
'Cause you're the one that walked away

I-I-I
I tell myself that I'll be fi-i-ine
Then wipe the teardrops from my eye-eye-eyes
I'll pick up the parts
While you go and break another heart

Another, another
You break another heart
Another, another
You break another heart
Another, another
You break another heart
Oh oh oh oh

'Cause nothing ever goes the way you plan it
And even though it hurts, one day you'll understand it
I'm stronger now because of all that's happened
I would've have it any other way

But I-I-I
I wasn't ready for goodbye-ye-ye
I would've stayed right by your si-i-ide
But you can't say the same
'Cause you're the one that walked away

I-I-I
I tell myself that I'll be fi-i-ine
Then wipe the teardrops from my eye-eye-eyes
I'll pick up the parts
While you go and break another heart
