

Hurts Like You

James TW

People tell me love is supposed to be easy
Others say that love's only meant to taste sweet
Movies always show us the fairy tale feelings
But never how it hurts when it cuts you deep

I wouldn't have love any other way
Cause pleasure comes with pain

If it's really love
You can always tell
Cause you won't give up
When hurts like hell
Oh you know it's true
Nothing hurts like you

If you're holding on
When the times get tough
If you can't let it go
Then you know it's love
Oh you know it's true
Nothing hurts like you

You only feel the flames when you're playing with fire
And I feel every spark when you light me up
In every fallen tear there's a sweet desire
And I would cry a river In the name of love

I wouldn't have love any other way
Cause pleasure comes with pain

If it's really love
You can always tell
Cause you won't give up
When hurts like hell
Oh you know it's true
Nothing hurts like you

If you're holding on
When the times get tough
If you can't let it go
Then you know it's love
Oh you know it's true
Nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts like you

People tell me love is supposed to be easy but

If it's really love
You can always tell
Cause you won't give up
When hurts like hell
Oh you know it's true
Nothing hurts like you

If you're holding on

If you can't let it go
Then you know it's love
Nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts like you
Nothing hurts like you
