Why

James TW

When we met, you found me at the worst time
Still picking up the pieces of my love life
Felt your touch, got scared of the feeling
Didn't know how much I would need it

I don't want nobody else
But I just get so in my head

I don't listen to my heart (Oh, why, oh, why)
Overthinking since the start (Oh, why, oh, why)
Why am I scared of forever
When we're so good together?
I don't listen to my heart (Oh, why, oh, why)

Why am I so caught up over three words?
Why am I stalling, hoping you'll go first?
What if you don't feel the same
And I'll end up alone again saying
"I should've known I would get hurt"

I don't want nobody else
But why'd I try and stop myself?

I don't listen to my heart (Oh, why, oh, why)
Overthinking since the start (Oh, why, oh, why)
Why am I scared of forever
When we're so good together?
I don't listen to my heart (Oh, why, oh, why)

Oh, oh
To my heart Oh
Oh, oh
To my heart oh why

Oh, oh
To my heart Oh
Oh, oh
To my heart oh why

Why am I scared of forever
When we're so good together?
Why am I scared of forever
When we're so good together?
Why am I scared of forever
When we're so good together?
I don't listen to my heart (Oh, why, oh, why)
