Fuck you
I wanna fuck you
Until we break through
Into other dimensions
Where we're all one
Before the Big Bang

We can hold it all, hold it all together
In this never-ending game of hide and seek
Oh, we're reaching out for ecstasy forever
While the bodies pile up, face-down on the beach

It's true what the mermaids sing
It's love makes us blind
Don't ever forget we're living in
Extraordinary times

Some of me hates you
Like I hate myself
When I don't live to

We can hold it all, hold it all together
In this never-ending game of hide and seek
Oh, we're reaching out for ecstasy forever
While the bodies pile up, face-down on the beach

You hang by a spider's thread
Swinging so high
Don't ever forget we're living through
Extraordinary times
