

An emotional charge like an electrical spark
It fuses the two, you can't tell them apart
When the bodies collide, the bodies emerge
Back into one

An emotional charge like an electrical spark
It fuses the two, you can't tell them apart
When the bodies collide, the bodies emerge
Back into one

The only urge, all change, all change
Change your partners

Failed to achieve a basis
A basis for collaboration

But you can't hold the bond
Nothing stays still
The tiger moves on when it's taken it's fill
But you cling to the part
Like the shark to its prey
When the past doesn't last
There's pain, there's pain
There's pain
There's pain but there's no one to blame
I mean who's to blame

We just failed to achieve a basis for collaboration

Change, change, change, change

Here's pain

That's just hip
